First Stop: CARCAR

Carcar is known for its locally-made shoes. Bolo making and basket weaving are also some of the prevalent cottage industries among the Carcaranons. Aside from these, Carcaranons are also into wooden furniture manufacturing and antique reproduction. Carcar is also known for its delicious meaty chicharon which one cannot stop eating when started.

Second Stop: ARGAO

The Church of Argao possesses one of the remaining fourteen (14) Spanish pipe organs in the Philippines. It is one of the only three remaining organs in the whole province built in the 17th to the 19th century by Spanish pipe organ makers. Argao became a parish in 1703, prompting the construction of a beautiful rococo-baroque church structure in 1734 and its completion in 1788. The already renovated and modernized church, San Miguel Archangel Parish, still remains as one of the richly furnished churches in the south today.

The famous Torta de Argao, baked in clay ovens using the traditional ingredients like tuba, is available and can be enjoyed with a hot cup of chocolate or tsokolate.

The Cuartel Building, referred to as Apta Building, used to be a military barracks and is now being used as the Hall of Justice. It was rehabilitated through the efforts of Chief Justice Hilario Davide, Jr.
